Original Pathfinding Merit Badge book: http://www.scouting.org/filestore/pdf/Pathfinding_MBP_Historical.pdf

1: Find your local scout headquarters: <http://scouting.org/LocalCouncilLocator.aspx>

Google Maps can show you towns near the local scout headquarters and give you topographical maps.

2: US Census data for nearby cities and towns: <http://www.census.gov/popest/cities/SUB-EST2008-4.html>

3: You may not have any livery stables or blacksmith shops within a half-mile radius.

Find and map "Auto Repair & Service Centers" with <http://www.yellowpages.com/> "Garages" today are parking garages.

4: Yellow Page sites can also help you find and map:

Meat Markets Bakeries Grocery Stores Drug Stores

5: Yellow Page sites can also help you find and map:

Police Station Hospital Doctor Railroad Stations

Fire alarm call boxes used to be on many streets in the US but almost all are gone since the adoption of 911 systems

There aren't any "telegraph and telephone offices" today but you do have "Cell Phone Stores"

5, 7: Google Maps - Make and save a map of your community Sample Google Map Made By A Scout

This is similar to Citizenship in the Community, #2, Make a map of your community.

6: Wikipedia has the history of most US towns and cities.

Google Maps can show you public facilities. Yellow pages can as well.
